THE HAPPY STEGOMYIA.

Across the lines of quarantine,
Now flying high, now low,
All cheerfully and all serene
The stegomyia go;
And where sweet girls sit on the porch,
In shirtwaists peek-a-boo,
They nibble snow-white shoulders, and
I blame them not. Do you?
And where sweet girls sit in the shade,
Beneath the greenwood trees,
By babbling stream or forest glade,
And dainty lingerie
And clockwork stockings slightly show,
And tinted skin shows through,
The stegomyia bites, and I
Don't blame them much. Do you?
O girls with shirtwaists peek-a-boo,
And tan shoes décolleté,
I think that I should nibble you
Were I stegomyia.
I see you go arrayed for golf,
With dimpled elbows sweet,
And I just gnash my teeth to chew
On you, you look so sweet!

—Houston Post.

The veracity of the item may be judged when it is stated that no such person as Dr. Boone Phillips is a citizen of Maysville and the further fact that the noted 'Squire was the father of four sons, all of whom were bachelors at the time of their death.

STATE CONVENTION!

A Large Gathering at This Important Church Affair Here

INTERESTING MEETINGS

The Christian Church State Convention Formally Opened in This City Yesterday

The Largest Gathering of Christian Workers Ever Assembled Here on a Like Occasion

The Christian Church State Convention is here. It is being largely attended. The delegates began arriving yesterday morning, and last night they fairly poured in. It was a lovely shower, however, as every delegation was well sprinkled with women. Maysville is used to seeing pretty women; we have them with us always; but the women attending this Convention must have come from God's country—they looked so much like angels!

The local congregation has made every preparation for the reception and comfort of all visitors and delegates. The Committee on Homes was busy yesterday making the assignments. This Committee is composed of Dr. P. G. Smoot, J. Barbour Russell and J. Ed. Parker, men born for responsibility and equal to the occasion. The Committee and the whole congregation of the Church feel grateful to all the other denominations for throwing open their homes to the delegates. There is a delegate in nearly every home in the city.

The Reception Committee, Major W. H. Means, Dr. John M. Frazier, Dr. J. H. Samuel, Dr. Markham, Dr. Davis and others, met the delegates at the trains, and took them in carriages and on streetcars direct to the Church, where they were registered and then taken by Pages, the small boys of the Church, to their homes.

During the registering of the delegates, the entrance to the Church presented a very pleasing and animated appearance, while the buzz of small talk and friends greeting friends easily told the passer-by that the Convention was here.

The large letters of W-E-L-C-O-M-E on the vestibule entrance only accentuated the glad right hand of welcome, which the Committees and others extended to all.

At 4 p. m. a workers' conference was held in the main room of the Church, presided over by women and conducted by women in the interest of the C. W. B. M.

Mrs. Yancey, Mrs. Griffith, Lexington; Mrs. Bernaugh, Nicholasville; Mrs. Morgan, Miss Collins, Mrs. Clay, Mrs. Wornell, Paris, and Mrs. Mullins, Louisville, took active part in the Conference.

The discussion took a wide range, but the special subjects were, "Increase of Membership," "Increase of Young Ladies Circle," "Increase of Junior and Mission Bands," etc.

Last evening a large audience assembled at the Church to witness the formal opening of the Convention.

The building was artistically decorated and everything looked lovely.

The singing was in part in charge of Prof. Hackelman, the great choir leader of Indianapolis, and in part in charge of Dr. Smoot and the local choir. All the singing was grand and inspiring. The solo by Mrs. Alice Winn of Warsaw was listened to in rapt attention.

H. W. Elliott, State Evangelist, and Mrs. Yancey of Lexington conducted the program. The welcome address of Rev. R. E. Moss was a hearty one, ably composed and eloquently delivered. R. M. Giddens of Mayslick responded happily. Joe Severance of Central Kentucky in his pro tempore response in place of W. G. Thomas of Shelbyville, who had not arrived, was both humorous and grave in turn and always interesting.

The greeting by Mrs. R. E. Markham, response by Mrs. A. P. Finley of Lexington, the "Egyptian Princess" by Miss Iva Collins of Paris, the "Shumanite Woman" by Miss Nell Elliott of Sulphur, and other special features of the program, including the young ladies singing "Make Me a Channel of Blessing," were enjoyable and enjoyed.

This will be "Mayslick Day" and don't you forget it.

Our entire community is mourning the loss of one of its best citizens in the death of Mrs. Frances Bean Jenkins, wife of Mr. Louis Jenkins, which occurred at their home on Tuesday last. She was one of those rare, sweet souls who "thinketh no evil," gentle of speech, kindly in manner. She was a great sufferer for years, yet no complaining was ever heard. She was always cheerful and patient—ever ready to greet her friends with a bright smile and pleasant word. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins had no children of their own, but their pleasant home was always the abiding place of a number of orphan children. Mrs. Jenkins was "Aunt Frank" to all the children, far and near. She loved the little ones and her kind, motherly heart and low, sweet voice were always ready to help them in their troubles. She has gone to rest, but has left a void in the hearts of kindred and friends that no one can fill. The sympathy of every one goes out to the lonely, sorrowing husband. May he be comforted by her cheerful, happy life. She was a consistent member of the Methodist Church. The remains were laid to rest Thursday at noon at Plumville, amid a vast throng of sorrowing friends, with religious services by Elder T. J. Hedges.

ANOTHER CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

Captain W. S. Graham, 1321 Eoff St., Wheeling, W. Va., writing June 14, '04, says: "I am so grateful I want to thank God that a friend recommended Cuticura Soap and Ointment to me. I suffered for a long time with sores on my face and back. Some doctors said I had blood poison, and others that I had barbers' itch. None of them did me any good, but they all took my money. My friends tell me my skin now looks as clear as a baby's, and I tell them all that Cuticura Soap and Ointment did it."

STILL ANOTHER CURE

Fell Out, Wild With Itching

Mr. H. J. Spalding of 104 W. 104th St., New York City, says: "For two years my neck was covered with sores, the disease spreading to my hair, which fell out, leaving an unsightly bald spot, and the soreness, inflammation, and merciless itching made me wild. After a few applications of Cuticura the torment subsided, the sores disappeared, and my hair grew thick and healthy as ever."

AND STILL ANOTHER

"For over thirty years I suffered from painful ulcers and an eruption from my knees to my feet, and could find neither doctors nor medicines to help me, until I took Cuticura which cured me in six months. (signed) M. C. Moss, Gainesville, Tex."

HOW IT STICKS

Maysville Has Found It Hard To Shake Off

Hard to bear, harder to get rid of, Is any itching skin complaint, Eczema or Itching Piles. Doan's Ointment relieves and cures All itchininess of the skin. Maysville people endorse this statement: Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark street and Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., says: "I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville papers. I said that I had received most decided benefit from the use of this remedy, procured at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. For a long time I had an itching or eczema of the scalp. It broke out in spots, and sometimes the spots would appear on my forehead and temples. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain, and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence. A friend of mine also had eczema and tried everything for it but never found anything to remove the annoyance. On my recommendation she used Doan's Ointment, and was absolutely cured." For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
